Dear Mr & Mrs Arthur

Arthur -v- Layte PZ200604

I have received a communication addressed as per the enclosed scan of the envelope. My name is not Jeffrey and the address is not my service address.

Your attention is drawn to the last paragraph of my 16 April 2008 letter which reads "I confirm receipt of your 22 March 2008 witness statement however please note my change of service address for future communications".

This letter has been posted to you three times and it appears you have ignored them all. I think it inconceivable that all could have been lost in the post. However if this is the case please download another copy from the communications web site www.post2arthur.kennall.com . I enclose a print and I have highlighted my 16 April 2008 letter for your convenience.

You are reminded that your detailed points of dispute as regards my "self litigant's" bill of costs are due by 20 May 2008. Please serve these to my correct service address and include an explanation as to why these points of dispute were not made over a year ago when my bill was first served (see enclosed 8 March 2007 Proof of Delivery).

As you know my bill does not include any of my solicitor's costs. If I do not hear from you I will commence preparing a CPR compliant bill for these costs shortly. My charges to prepare the bill I estimated at £5000. If you send future communications to my correct service address I will take it that you have received this letter and agree to pay my charges.

Yours sincerely

J H Layte
