Dear Sir,

We have had recent feed back from the complainant stating that the main element is that a sensational local newspaper article has been reproduced.

It stated that Mr. Arthur had been convicted of driving with excess alcohol, fined a vast sum and disqualified from driving.

In fact this conviction was successfully appealed to the Crown Court and is thus now fallacious and history.

It states in the article that an appeal was entered at the original hearing.

As a final warning we have reactivated the contract, and will give you till 6 pm today (Friday 5th November 2010) to either take the page off line or remove the contents.

Please note that should you fail to comply we will shut the contract down for a 1 week period or more.

Kind Regards,

UK Legal Department
